

NEW REGISTRAR FOR ICTC

Mrs. Tryphaena Estambale has been deployed to ICT Centre as Deputy Registrar with effect from Feb 5, 2018.

Mrs. Estambale has worked for the University of Nairobi since 1989 where she joined as a Personal Admin Assistant to the DVC (Administration & Finance) in Links and Litigation which later became the Legal Office.

In 1995 she was assigned to the Office of International Programmes (IPO) as a Senior Admin Assistant which was a precursor of the Centre for International Programs (CIPL). In 2004, Mrs. Estambale was appointed as the Ag. College Registrar of the College of Agriculture and Veterinary Sciences (CAVS) until 2006 when she was confirmed to the position of College Registrar. In 2010, she was deployed to the Planning Division; and later promoted to the position of Deputy Registrar in December, 2012.

In January 2013, Mrs. Estambale was granted five (5) years' leave of absence without pay by the Vice Chancellor to serve as a Chief Executive Officer of the Political Parties Disputes Tribunal (PPDT) until the expiry of her contract on Jan 6, 2018.

Mrs. Estambale has big expectations for ICT Department. She believes in a team that is professional and focused, a team that consults and communicates, manages time, is inclusive, passionate and respects diversity. A team that is geared toward actualizing the realization of the University's vision.
